1611 KJV and the 1540 GREAT BIBLE

This short book contains a parallel chart and the scanned pages of the genuine Bible versions.

As a study aide, it may provide an excellent opportunity to gain greater understanding of Scripture and how times, words, and versions may affect meaning and understanding.

It may also strengthen any serious Bible student in wisdom and faith in the Most High.

What are some clear differences between the 1611 Kings Bible version, and the Great Bible of 1540 regarding the apocryphal book of

The Song of the 3 Children*?*

First, the 1611 KJV (which was published in the year Sixteen Hundred Eleven A.D.) has verse divisions, while the Great Bible of 1540 (published in the year Fifteen Hundred Forty A.D) as no verse divisions.

That applies to all of the books within the 1540 Great Bible— consisting of its Old Testament section, its Apocrypha section, and its New Testament section.

Secondly, also unlike the 1611, the 1540, within The Song of the 3 Children, includes, "...and they walked in the midst of the..." as part of the actual text as opposed to the 1611's use of that passage as part of the introduction to the book.

Following, is an easy-to-compare parallel of The Song of the 3 Children from both the 1611 King James Version and the 1540 Great Bible's version.

THE SONG OF THE THREE CHILDREN, WHICH FOLLOWETH IN THE THIRD CHAPTER OF DANIEL AFTER THIS PLACE [And they walked in the midst of the fire, praising God, and blessing the Lord.] That which followeth is not in the Hebrew; to wit, [Then Azariah stood up unto these words]. [And Nabuchodonorsor].	THE SONG OF THE THREE CHILDREN, WHICH WERE PUT INTO THE HOT BURNING OVEN. THE COMMON TRANSLATION READETH THIS SONG IN THE 3RD CHPTER OF DANIEL.
	And they walked in the midst of the flame, praising God and magnifying the LORD.
1 Then Azarias stood up and prayed on this manner, and opening his mouth in the midst of the fire, said,	Asarias stood up, and prayed on this manner. Even in the midst of the fire, opened he his mouth, and said:
2 Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers: thy name is	Blessed be Thou (Oh, LORD God of our fathers). Right worthy worthy to be praised, and glorified for evermore.	to be praised and honored is the name of Thine forevermore.

3 For thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done to us: yea, true are all thy works: thy ways are right, and all thy judgments truth.	For Thou art righteous in all the things that thou has done to us. Yea, faithful are all thy works. Thy ways are right and all Thy judgments true.
4 In all the things that thou hast brought upon us, and upon the holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgement: for according to truth and judgement, didst thou bring all these things upon us, because of our sins.	In all the things that Thou has brought upon us, and the holy city of our fathers (even Jerusalem), Thou has executed true judgment. Yea, according to right and equity, hast Thou brought all these things upon us because of our sins.
5 For we have sinned	For why? We have and committed iniquity, departing from thee.	offended, and done wickedly, departing from Thee.

6 In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commandments, nor kept them, neither done as thou hast commanded us, that it might go well with us.	In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commandments nor kept Thee, neither done as Thou hast bid us that we might prosper.
7 Wherefore all that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgement.	Wherefore, all that thou hast brought upon us, and everything that thou has done to us, Thou hast done Thee in true judgment,
8 And thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, most hateful forsakers [of God] and to an unjust King, and	as in delivering us into the hands of our enemies among unholy and wicked abominations and to an unrighteous king;

the most wicked in all the world.	yea, the most forward on earth.
9 And now we can not open our mouths, we are become a shame, and reproach to thy servants, and to them that worship thee.	And now, we may not open our mouths. We have become a shame and a reproof unto Thy servants and to them that worship Thee.
10 Yet deliver us not up wholly for thy name's sake, neither disannul thou thy Covenant:	Yet, for Thine names' sake, we beseech Thee, give us not up forever. Break not Thy covenant,
11 And cause not thy mercy to depart from us: for thy beloved Abraham's sake: for thy servant Isaac's sake, and for thy holy Israel's sake.	and take not away Thy mercy from us for Thy beloved Abraham's sake, for thy servant Isaac's sake, and for thy holy Israel's sake.
12 To whom thou hast spoken and promised, That thou wouldest multiply	To whom Thou hast spoken and promised that Thou wouldest multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that lieth upon the sea shore.

13 For we, O Lord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world, because of our sins.

14 Neither is there at this time, Prince, or Prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before thee, and to find mercy.

15 Nevertheless in a contrite heart, and an humble spirit, let us be accepted.

their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that lieth upon the sea shore.

For we, oh, LORD, are become less than any people, and be kept under this day in all the world, because of our sins.

So then now we have neither prince, duke, prophet, burnt offering, sacrifice, oblation, incense, nor sanctuary before Thee.

Nevertheless, in a contrite heart and an humble spirit let us be received, that we may obtain thy mercy.

16 Like as in the burnt offering of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs: so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and [grant] that we may wholly go after thee: for they shall not be confounded that put their trust in thee.

17 And now we follow thee, with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face.

18 Put us not to shame: but deal with us after thy loving kindness, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

Like as in the burnt offering of rams and bullocks, and like as in thousands of fat lambs so let our offering be in Thy sight this day, that is may please Thee, for there is no confusion unto Thee and put their trust in Thee.

And now we follow Thee with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face.

Put us not to shame, but deal with us after thy loving kindness, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

19 Deliver us also according to thy marvelous works, and give glory to thy name, O Lord, and let all them that do thy servants hurt be ashamed.	Deliver us by thy miracles, Oh, LORD, and get thy name and honor: that all they which do thy servants evil,
20 And let them be confounded in all their power and might, and let their strength be broken.	may be confounded. Let them be ashamed through thy almighty power, and let their strength be broken:
21 And let them know that thou art Lord, the only God, and glorious over the whole world.	that they may know, how that thou only art the Lord God, and honor worthy throughout all the world.
22 And the kings servants that put them in, ceased not to make the oven hot	And the kings servants that put them in, ceased not to make the oven hot

with rosin, pitch, tow, and small wood.	with wild fire, dry straw, pitch, and fagots
23 So that the flame streamed forth above the furnace, forty and nine cubits:	so that the flame went out of the oven upon a 49 cubits.
24 And it passed through, and burnt those Caldeans it found about the furnace.	Yea, it took away and burnt up those Caldes, that it got hold upon beside the oven.
25 But the angel of the Lord came down into the oven, together with Azarias and his fellows, and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven:	But the angel of the Lord came down into the oven to Asarias and his fellows, and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven,
